Reference the following, which should all be in the U.S. Internal Revenue Service files:

1. Final Notice of Intent to Levy from IRS – Bensalem, PA dated 2/16/2004 Taxpayer ID [REDACTED]
2. Notice of Intent to Levy # CP 504 from IRS – Holtsville, NY dated 12/8/2003 SSN/EIN [REDACTED]
3. My letter to IRS – Holtsville, NY dated 9/14/2003
4. My 22 Affidavits, notarized, witnessed, and sent certified mail dated Apr 14, 2000

To All Internal Revenue Service Offices and Employees (hereinafter referenced as you, your, and/or IRS) Involved,

NOTICE - YOUR PRESENTMENTS (reference 1 and 2 above) ARE IN GROSS ERROR. On April 14, 2000, I filed 22 Affidavits (reference 4) with government officials/agencies (recipients are listed therein), contesting the validity of USC Title 26. Certified receipts show copies should be in Andover, MA and Washington, DC. On September 14, 2003 (reference 3), I again pointed out these facts. As of this date, not a single Government official has responded to any of its contents or notified me of the specific law(s) that requires me to pay "income tax". You continue to ignore my documents, and threaten me on an unsubstantiated basis with unsigned, illegal notices (harassment).

It is my firm belief that "Income Taxation" under USC Title 26 (1) does not apply to me, a Sovereign Citizen of the Massachusetts Republic having no "income" derived from government sources; (2) does not have any legal authority to execute; (3) violates numerous sections of the U.S. Constitution; and (4) therefore must be voluntary, and as such cannot carry penalties for noncompliance.

I assert that I have legally withdrawn all of my signatures from any IRS documents as stated in reference 4. I also assert that this matter is legally contested and to levy any of my personal property without "due process" is another violation of my Constitutional Rights.

I again hereby refute the validity of your presentment demand, without dishonor. I do not owe this or any amount to you, your agency, or your organization. Pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code Section 3-505, please provide me the following information:

1. Reasonable identification of the person who is making said presentment demand, including copies of the following: (a) Driver's License, (b) Social Security Card, and (c) IRS Identification Card.
2. Exhibition of the instrument, agreement or contract, which I knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally entered into with you, which created the alleged liability contained in the above referenced presentment demands (reference 1 and 2).
3. Your authority to make such presentment demand. If you are making this presentment for another, please include the names and title(s) of person(s) delegating you such authority, within the law, that defines me, a Sovereign Citizen, domiciled and exercising my fundamental right to earn compensation for labor in one of the 50 states, as the "person" liable for paying the taxes referred to in the said presentment demands (reference 1 and 2).

Without Prejudice, UCC 1-207
