What you need to knowDenial or revocation of United States Passport:

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing a seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt.

Denial or revocation of United States Passport – continued

Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $55,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted, or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $55,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at www.irs.gov/passports.

If we don't hear from you

Pay $20,117.73 by May 9, 2022, to avoid interest and any applicable penalty charges.

If you don't pay the amount due or call us to make payment arrangements, we will continue to send you annual reminder notices of your balance due until the statute of limitations for collection expires.

When you do not pay your tax debt, a federal tax lien arises as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors and we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights). If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The NFTL may also appear on your credit report.
