

Damages

A. Exhibit 030 - Tangible Damages (Compilation of Exhibits 026 thru 030A)

1. The ongoing illicit actions of the Defendants spanning many years are the direct and proximate cause of tangible damages to this Plaintiff and his Family, in an escalating restorative-value exceeding $50 million (calculated in Exhibit 030 using Exhibit 030A) to be updated prior to, and then confirmed by, unbiased Jury deliberation as follows:
 - (a) beginning in 1969 (52 years) for the IRS and MDOR and beginning in 1991 (30 years) for CDORS (initiation of "income tax");
 - (b) tangible stolen Property – Plaintiff's remuneration illegally expropriated in taxation activity conducted under color-of-authority (Exhibits 026 A - I and 027 A - Z);
 - (c) calculated full current value restoration including compensation for inflation loss (yearly Consumer Price Index) compounded monthly;
 - (d) calculated full current value restoration including compensation for prolonged inaccessibility (interest and penalties compounded monthly as asserted by the Defendants in their extortionate invoices);
 - (e) remuneration for his time expended in Involuntary Servitude for 52 years while coerced to act as an Accountant in compliance with fraudulently represented "income taxation"; and
 - (f) remuneration for his additional time expended in Involuntary Servitude for 24 years while compelled to perform as an Attorney (pro se) in defense of his Unalienable Rights and recovery of his illegally expropriated Property from "income taxation" activity conducted under color-of-authority.

Damages

B. Intangible Damages

2. Ongoing since March 1999, this Plaintiff and his family have lived in constant fear of having their home and all of their Property confiscated without "Due Process" for fraudulent tax liabilities with escalating levy, lien, and seizure extortionate demands. From experiencing the depths of the Defendants' demoralizing Abuse and the scope of their Weaponized Linguistics, this Plaintiff cannot convey the frustration of contradictions; the fear and distress of prolonged escalating Extortion threats; Involuntary Servitude's toll; the constant daytime preoccupation and sleepless nights of worry; the hopelessness; and the panic when another unforeseen retaliatory attack surfaces.
3. The ongoing escalating illicit actions of the Defendants spanning many years are the direct and proximate cause of intangible damages to this Plaintiff and his Family in an escalating compensatory amount to be assessed by unbiased Jury deliberation for:
 - (a) lost enjoyment of all Property illegally expropriated;
 - (b) lost enjoyment of time while: (1) coerced to prepare unnecessary "income tax" forms, (2) learning to be a pro se litigant, and (3) defending his Unalienable Rights and Property;
 - (c) loss of credit and financial security to make contracts (mortgages, loans, accounts);
 - (d) loss of dignity, independence, and security living under constant imminent threat;
 - (e) undue hardship; prolonged isolation from "Due Process"; and his family's escalating distress, health problems, and oppressed desires interfering with their "Pursuit of Happiness".

Damages

C. Punitive Damages

4. The ongoing escalating illicit actions of the Defendants spanning many years are the direct and proximate cause for punitive damages to be assessed by unbiased Jury deliberation. In consideration of the amount, 26 USC 7212 provides for the doubling of the amount of Property when the offense is reversed.
